

Dear friend,

welcome to our Argiano wine club.

A physical and not-physical place for wine-lovers, fans of Tuscany and Italian culture, for experienced wine-tasters and courageous gastronomists, a place for people who love good wine and good food, not only as a way of satisfying the senses, but as a connection with history, production philosophies and ways of living.

How to join the Argiano Exceptional Club and what it means to be a member:

- Access is available only on invitation of an Argiano member of staff or another Club member. Club registration is valid for 12 months.
- Membership costs 3000 euro, for which you will receive two annual orders of the entire range of Argiano wines of the current vintage (including 750 ml and magnum bottles). Shipping costs and taxes are included.
- The first shipment will contain a welcome gift and a membership card.
- Along with your welcome gift, you will receive an invitation for an online guided tasting with an Argiano wine professional. It's up to you to decide when! Simply make an appointment, tell us which bottles you want to open, and prepare to taste them together!
- You will enjoy a 10% discount off the list price of old vintages available exclusively to club members. You will also be offered a 20% discount off holidays in our Dimore.
- Club membership also entitles you to an Arpeggio tasting, including a variety of finger foods specifically paired with each of the wines tasted, which you may enjoy yourself or offer to friends who will be coming to see us: simply contact us and provide the names of the people you wish to invite to Argiano for the tasting.
- Pick your bottles: you will be offered three hours of private use of a location of your choice on the estate (for a group of up to 10 people), during which you may taste 3 bottles of your choice, from among the proposed selection, in a part of our sixteenth-century winery available exclusively to club members.

- For the duration of your membership, you will be invited to an online - wine tasting event organised by our staff focusing on a variety of themes.
- You will obtain priority on the purchasing of NFT from Italian Wine Crypto Bank linked to a Magnum of Vigna del Suolo 2016, rare example of only 250 bottles in this size; the NFT is associated to an artwork from the artist Gianluca Biscalchin, created only in 22 copies.
- You will be offered a discount on tickets for events held on the estate and all over the world, subject to availability; we will keep you informed.
- You will also receive an invitation for two to an exclusive annual dinner on the estate, during which you will be able to taste all the excellent products of Argiano, and more! A unique opportunity to participate in a very special evening celebrating wine, history and life, in the company of other wine lovers like yourself: people who recognise that Argiano holds a special place in their heart!
