Come ribattezzato dallo stesso staff di Argiano, un 'baby Supertuscan', uno dei blend più entusiasmanti della nuova ondata toscana. Cabernet Sauvignon dominante, al 50%, poi Sangiovese 25%, Merlot 20%, Petit Verdot 5%, naso di visciole sotto spirito, peonia, tocchi di sottobosco al naso, la bocca è altrettanto intensa, densa, fruttata, con tannini sapidi e ritorno delle sensazioni balsamiche.

A blend of 60% Cabernet Sauvignon, 30% Merlot and 10% Sangiovese, the Argiano 2019 Non Confunditur (with 100,000 bottles released) is a terrific value proposition with lots of freshness and easy aromas of dark cherry, blackberry, baked clay, some black olive and grilled rosemary. The wine goes down easily with a soft approach to the palate and medium-rich concentration. This food-friendly Tuscan red is aged in neutral oak, and it would make a great partner to grilled sausage and onions. Drink date 2022 – 2024.
